

BLEEP

The light was very white.

The little sheep was looking into the light and smiling like he was listening.

The sheep moved his head as if his eyes were following someone.

Then he started hopping and following the light.

He was smiling and full of joy.

The little sheep began to dance and spin around.

JESUS smiled and continued to walk a small distance in front of the little sheep.

The little sheep was so happy he saw a frog.

He ran to the frog and said, "Mr. Frog, I am going home with JESUS today!!"

The little sheep turned his body and jerking his head up and down the path.

He looked for JESUS and saw the brilliant white light standing still, waiting for him.

The sheep laughed and began to run to the light.

He saw a blue jay and said, "Mr. Blue Jay!!"

The blue jay flew away.

The sheep stood and looked at the blue jay as it flew away.

He caught a glimpse of something out of his right eye.

He jerked his head suddenly and saw two beautiful butterflies.

His eyes got wide and he smiled, forgetting about Mr. Blue Jay.

The sheep said, "Hello butterflies!"

The butterflies did not move.

The little sheep smiled and began to twirl around and dance and as he was about to speak.

The blue jay returned with a worm in his mouth and flying forward to the sheep and placed the worm on the little sheep's nose.

JESUS giggled.

The little sheep, trying to get a close look at the worm on his nose eyes began to cross.

Then he shook the worm off his nose.

He said to the blue jay, "Mr. Blue Jay, I thank you for your act of friendship, but I do not eat worms."

The blue jay looked down at the worm.

He swooned down and picked up the worm and began to eat it.

The little sheep laughed.

The two beautiful butterflies were flapping their wings.

The blue jay finished his meal and flew up to the beautiful butterflies.

The little sheep was so delighted and jumped in the air with gladness.

He came back to the ground and said, "Mr. Butterflies and Mr. Blue Jay."

The sheep heard a noise and he stopped in mid -sentence his eyes became big and his mind was racing to figure out what was that noise he heard.

Then he heard that noise again.

It was clear.

JESUS stopped walking.

JESUS turned around and looked at Bleep.

Bleep squinted his eyes.

His heart began to race and fill with hate and anger.

He burst into a run.

JESUS stooped down.

The blue jay and beautiful butterflies followed Bleep.

JESUS looked at them.

The blue jay landed on JESUS' right shoulder.

JESUS smiled and looked at the blue jay.

The beautiful butterflies hover closer to Bleep.

Bleep easing up the JESUS, heard another "Baa".

He quickly turned his head to see where the "bleating" was coming from.

JESUS looked at Bleep.

Bleep began to stretch his neck over the field of grass.

He recognized the silhouettes of some of the sheep.

He saw the backs of two of the main liars and gossipers.

Two young sheep, one female and the other male, were looking out at the grass.

The young female sheep said, "Is that?"

The young male sheep turning and looking out at the grass and saw a sheep looking at them.

He stared for a moment and said, "Nall that can't be. We got rid of him. "

The two young sheep continued to stand still and stare at the sheep staring at them.

Bleep saw the cigar, suspenders wearing deacon.

Bleep's mind began to go back.

He began to remember the adulterous deacon running to the pastor and sitting next to him would complain about Bleep and his mouth.

The pastor would get up in JESUS' pulpit and talk about Bleep.

Everyone knew the pastor was talking about Bleep.

Bleep would be hurt and hold down his head.

That caused everyone else in the small church to pick at Bleep.

The church members harassed and bullied Bleep.

His heart began to be full of hurt and shame.

He remembered how the gossipers would talk to him and say, "Go and get that pail of water. Go and bring that ladder over here."

He knew if he didn't do what they say they would run to the pastor and lie on him, like they did so often before saying, "Pastor, Bleep is not being Christian."

They broke down his spirit.

Even the bad little young sheep would be disrespectful in the services, with laughter and loud talking.

The adulterous deacon would jump up and say, "Who is that being disrespectful in GODS's house?"

The two young liars would say, "Bleep."

Bleep would be seating on the other side of the aisle and would jump and turn and look at the adulterous deacon, shaking his head for "NO."

But the adulterous deacon would yell, "Pastor, it's Bleep."

The pastor would look at Bleep and say, "Bleep, this behavior cannot continue. You can either get in order or leave."

Bleep held his head down in shame and embarrassment.

He would go home and fall on his knees and say, "JESUS they lie on me all the time. Everyone picks on me and say horrible things about me all the time. My heart hurts. Amen."

JESUS was remembering all Bleeps pain and hurt.

Bleep became tired and could not get out of bed.

Every time he thought about the horrible and terrible things the sheep in JESUS' house did to him, he became sicker.

No one came to check on him.

No one called him to see how he was doing.

He received his termination letter from his job.

At the persistent knocking of the postman, Bleep managed to get out of his bed and dragged himself to his door.

He opened the door.

The postman looked at Bleep and said, "You have to sign for this letter, Mr. Bleep."

Bleep teared up, but no more tears.

The postman looked at him.

He handed Bleep the letter and pad to sign.

Bleep dropped the pen.

The postman looked at Bleep for him to pick up the pen.

Then he bent down and picked up the pen and gave it to Bleep.

Bleep signed the pad.

He closed the door.

Turned his back to the door.

Bleep opened the letter.

His eyes became big as he read the letter.

He dropped it on the floor and went back to his bed, to die.

But before Bleep could start his vigil to ask JESUS to let him die, JESUS was standing by Bleep's bed.

Bleep was totally unaware of JESUS' presence.

Bleep said, "JESUS."

JESUS cutting him off at 'JESUS' said, "Bleep, I am here."

Bleep thinking his mind was playing a trick on him.

JESUS said, "Bleep."

Bleep turned his eyes to the place he heard the voice.

His eyes became wide, as he saw JESUS standing there.

Bleep began to smile because he knew JESUS came to take him home and he would never be so hurt any more.

JESUS walked over to Bleep's bed.

HE looked up and down Bleep's body.

HE reached his hand to Bleep.

Bleep took JESUS' hand.

JESUS opened the door and HE and Bleep walked out the door.

Bleep looked around his house at the bright and glorious light JESUS exuded.

JESUS turned to Bleep and spoke to him and said, "Follow me."

Bleep backed up to JESUS.

He stared at the small church and the sheep.

Bleep said nothing.

JESUS staring at Bleep, feeling his pain.

Bleep said, "JESUS, why are we here?"

The two young sheep began to tip through the grass edging closer to the path where the strange sheep was standing.

The adulterous suspender wearing sheep was watching the young sheep walking to the pathway.

He began to speak between the cigar in his mouth and say to the two of the liars and gossipers, "Whose that out there?"

The two liars and gossipers turned and looked out towards the pathway.

The taller one was holding onto her hat and began to jump up to see who was out there.

The other liar and gossiper smirked and said, "Well my son is going to invite him to our church service."

The pastor who was walking on the porch passed the deacon.

He looked out towards the pathway and smirked and walked into the church.

Followed by his wife with a small hat on her head and her head up in the air.

JESUS said to Bleep, "Bleep, I need you here."

Bleep completely shocked looked at JESUS and said, "Why?' Aren't they going to hell?"

JESUS looking at the two young sheep that had made their way to the path.

JESUS said to Bleep, "Bleep, I love you."

Bleep said "Jesus, I love YOU. I don't want to be hurt any more. I want to go with YOU. Please, JESUS."

JESUS looking deep into Bleep's eyes and Bleep looking deep into JESUS' eyes.

Bleep knew that JESUS did not want him to be hurt anymore would tell him to come and go home.

JESUS was thinking and He turned and looked at the young sheep again.

Bleep followed JESUS eyes to the two young evil sheep.

JESUS said "Bleep, I need you here."

Bleep walked a distance from JESUS.

Bleep began to jump in the air and turn around and stomp his feet, throwing his head in the air.

Bleep was saying, "Da Bleep. No, da bleep. Hell, no bleep."

JESUS stood.

The two young evil sheep peeped down the path at Bleep.

JESUS looked at the two young ones.

JESUS still hearing the bleeping of Bleep.

JESUS said, "Bleep, you promised ME you would do MY will and MY FATHER's will on earth so you can enter into the kingdom of Heaven."

Bleep was huffing and puffing and was enraged and doing a double patting of his feet.

JESUS said, "I need you Bleep."

Bleep slowly turned to look at JESUS when the KING said HE needed 'Bleep'.

Bleep looked at the evil young sheep and then he saw the adulterous deacon and the two liars and gossipers standing in the pathway behind JESUS.

JESUS turned and looked at the two young sheep and then at the adult sheep.

JESUS looked at the small church with the cross at the top.

Bleep was understanding JESUS' heart.

JESUS is not willing that any should perish.

Then Bleep began to understand he was specially chosen by GOD and JESUS to help these people so they would not perish.

JESUS turned and looked at Bleep because HE knew the HOLY GHOST had just given Bleep the understanding of who he is and how important he is to GOD and JESUS.

Bleep's eyes well with humbleness and shame for how he acted.

JESUS said, "Bleep."

Bleep looking up at JESUS.

JESUS stooped down and said, "Bleep, these are sheep."

Bleep peeping around JESUS at the evil congregation of sheep.

Bleep said, "JESUS, these are your sheep?"

JESUS smiled and looked around.

Bleep looked around JESUS and said, "Who is that?"

JESUS knew the 'Who' that Bleep saw.

JESUS turned around and to look.

HE turned back to Bleep and said, "The HOLY GHOST. HE will help you here Bleep."

Bleep said, "Where was HE before? When I was hurt."

JESUS said, "He was afar off, but now because I have you here to help these sheep get on the straight and narrow path, HE will help you."

JESUS stood.

Bleep made a step towards JESUS.

JESUS smiled at Bleep and said, "I can't take you with ME Bleep."

Bleep looked at JESUS.

JESUS said, "If I do all of these sheep will be lost. You know ME and the FATHER do not want anyone lost. I'm coming back very soon for my Bride. Be ready Bleep."

Bleep looking at the evil congregation, and the bad young sheep.

He saw the beautiful butterflies fly away.

He heard the singing of the blue jay as he flew away.

Bleep turned and looked at the evil young sheep, who had stepped out of the grass closer to him in the pathway.

Bleep stared at the two juvenile sheep.

He looked at the congregation of evil sheep who was joined by the pastor and his fat wife.

Bleep caught a glimpse of the cross on top of the church.

Bleep was staring at the sheep and began to see lamb kabobs, grilled lamb chops and fried lamb chops.

JESUS said, "Bleep!"

Bleep jumped and looked around with his eyes full of fear.

The pastor held his head sideways to look at Bleep.

The adulterous cigar smoking suspenders wearing deacon just stared at Bleep.

The two evil young sheep walked to Bleep and said, "We're sorry, Mr. Bleep."

Bleep thought, "Sure you are."

JESUS said, "Bleep, accept their apology."

Bleep said to himself, "Huh."

He said out loud, "If that's your apology I will accept it."

The two young sheep began to jump and skip and was happy.

Bleep looking at the evil congregation and saw JESUS standing next to the HOLY GHOST.

JESUS said to Bleep, "Nothing is impossible to those who believe. I will never leave you nor forsake you. You have a very short time before I come for you. Work hard and your reward will I bring."

JESUS disappeared along with the HOLY GHOST.

Bleep gasped in fear of Them leaving him.

Then he remembered JESUS said HE will never leave him nor forsake him.

Bleep began to walk to the evil congregation.

The two evil young sheep walking on each side of him, like they were presenting Bleep back to the church.

The pastor looked and saw it was Bleep and said, "Huh" and walked away.

His wife followed with her head up in the air who also said. "Huh."

Bleep stood in the pathway.

The young evil sheep said, "Come on Mr. Bleep."

Bleep kept looking for JESUS.

The two liars and gossipers rolled their eyes at Bleep and walked away.

The deacon was left in the pathway.

He began to speak to Bleep between his smoking the cigar.

He said to Bleep with a very stern and nasty voice, "Don't you come back here with your stuff. You hear me!"

Bleep looked at the two young sheep and said, "Go on."

The two sheep looked at Mr. Bleep and said, "Yes sir."

Bleep was shocked at their polite and respectful response.

Bleep knew JESUS was working on him to remove all the hate and pain and placed HIS love in Bleep.

Bleep knew he could only get to know JESUS through obedience and love.

The two young sheep looked back at Bleep and ran to the church.

The young male sheep said, "Let's tell everyone Mr. Bleep is back."

The young female sheep said, "Sure".

They ran into the church.

The cigar smoking deacon was looking at Bleep with a very mean look wondering why he sent the young sheep away.

Bleep patted the deacon on his shoulder and said, "JESUS loves you."

The deacon bellowed out, "I know that."

Bleep batted his eyes at this man's not knowing the scriptures and not knowing JESUS.

Bleep said, "I am back. I am going to do GOD's will. Let us get to it."

Deacon yelled, "What?!"

Bleep said, "Adultery is a sin. Give it up and repent, so in the Day of JESUS' return you can go with us."

The deacon's cigar fell out of his mouth to the ground.

Bleep walked away from the deacon.

He heard JESUS' voice, "Good Bleep."

Bleep smiled and lifted his head up as he approached the church's porch where the congregation had gathered.

Some to look at him and others to welcome him back.

Bleep spoke to the gathering and walked into the church and took his seat across the aisle from the two young sheep.

The young sheep were already seated and looking at Mr. Bleep.

The pastor entered along with his wife, everyone stood up including the choir behind the pastor.

The choir began to sing, "What a Savior we have in JESUS."

Mr. Bleep stood and relished in the words of the song.

He could feel the presence of JESUS over the congregation.

Bleep began to cry at the grace and love of JESUS that HE does not want anyone to perish but for all to come to repentance.

The cigar smoking deacon finally showed up in church.

He walked in and went and sat on the deacon's bench with a pale look on his face.

Bleep saw him and said to himself, "Get use to it. There's a lot more coming."

Bleep, holding his hymn book, looked back at the choir and bellowed out, "What a friend we have in JESUS, all my sins are washed away."
