

Jesus is standing on the edge of a very high mountain looking out with a smile.

My Joy

You are my joy.

You are my love.

I love you so much.

My love for you is true love.

It is pure love.

It grows daily and fulfil my Joy.

The Joy the Father said HE would give to me when I completed my work of redemption.

Now let my joy in you, that you feel in your heart, begin to grow.

Know that as the father gave me joy, He will give you joy.

The more you work out your soul salvation the more of my Joy I will give to you to complete the work.

The road is hard sometimes but rejoice, because I have overcome the world and my Joy is complete.

Rejoice, let the Joy of the LORD lift you up daily and rejoice in me.
