

The Reading

A book is opened to an empty page.

A man's hand flips through the short book filled with empty pages.

Some pages had a sentence.

The man's eyes began to look around.

They focus on the near empty shelf near him.

A man stands to the man's side.

The man seated closes the thin book.

He hands it to the man standing by his side.

The man shifts his eyes and looks at the shelves.

The shelves were bare or near bare.

The man sighs.

He pushes his chair back and stands.

A servant standing behind him pulls the chair back.

The man stands with his hands on the table.

He looks around and his eyes focuses on a small book on a top shelf in the back of the huge room.

He saw the name on the thin book, 'Peter'.

JESUS smiles and says, 'Peter'.

The room comes into full view.

The room is brilliant white.

The floor is solid gold.

The shelves were made of diamonds, rubies, sapphires and emeralds.

The windows were made of gold but had no glass.

JESUS stands.

HIS shoulder length hair and eyes are brown.

He has on a white robe and sandals made of gold.

His eyes then settle on a small book with the name 'Abraham'.

JESUS looks across the massive distance and sees a very thin book with the name 'David' written on it.

JESUS smiles and He then sighs.

He saw flashes of whips cracking the air and ripping His body.

The sound of hammers plunging nails into His hands hits His ears.

Throngs of people jeering Him.

Complete darkness engulfs Him.

The unbearable pain of being separated from the Father causes JESUS to stumble forwards.

The host in the room with Him watched Him.

JESUS closes his eyes.

JESUS opens His eyes.

He sees a gravely thin book.

The book had a name written on it, 'Mary'.

He smiles.

JESUS said, "I will go".

The host in the room with Him heard Him.

JESUS began to take the extremely long walk out the huge room which was the library that housed each person's book of life.

JESUS covers His head and exit the great library.

The glorious light that flooded through the opened windows hit JESUS and covered Him in God's glory.

JESUS began to descend the enormous steps of the great library.

Everyone turned to watch the Son of God descend the steps.

They knew He had to make a DECISION.

Heaven was waiting to know the decision JESUS made.

The host of angels that were in the great library followed behind the Son of Glory.

The glorious light that filled heaven was GOD'S glory, it was His light.

Each step JESUS took, the glorious light of GOD hit Him more.

JESUS walked pass the innumerable host of heaven.

As He passed them the angels and beings saw Him and followed Him.

They all knew JESUS had made His DECISION.

They knew no one could do what GOD required but JESUS.

They also knew it would require JESUS to be separated from the LORD GOD Almighty and be in darkness.

The glory of GOD covered all the innumerable host of heaven.

HIS glory was bouncing from one end of heaven to the other end.

The LORD GOD Almighty was standing looking and HE had HIS hands behind HIS back.

HE felt something in HIS Spirit.

He turned slightly to HIS left.

The LORD GOD Almighty knew more of what it would cost JESUS.

JESUS was walking and thinking about each person the LORD GOD Almighty told Him about.

He thought about how their lives would be for eternity if He would not come.

JESUS looks up and beheld all the residents of heaven lined His pathway.

All were anticipating the 'Decision' they waited for an eternity to hear.

JESUS looked ahead to the end of the street.

GOD'S Throne.

JESUS continued to walk.

He was thinking of all the FATHER told Him He had to endure.

JESUS thought about what the FATHER said, HE was the light of the world.

He would shine light in the darkness.

He would give the people hope and life.

The LORD GOD Almighty told JESUS He was HIS Word.

He would teach the people about GOD so they can grow and become one with Him and JESUS.

JESUS was thinking if He did not go the people would not grow and know GOD and HIM and their lives would not be full of the purpose of GOD.

Their lives would remain the empty and bare books on the shelves of the great library.

The LORD GOD Almighty turned and walked into HIS throne room.

HE sat on HIS throne.

HIS entire throne room were filled with angels and beings and scribes.

Everyone knew JESUS was on His way to the throne room.

They all felt Him.

The scribes simultaneously opened their millions of books to write JESUS' 'DECISION'.

The host of guards that lined the walls inside the throne room and outside the throne room were waiting for JESUS to enter and announce His 'DECISION'.

The LORD GOD's personal angel was standing on the floor to the left of the LORD GOD Almighty's throne.

Everyone was quiet.

JESUS entered into the building that house the LORD GOD'S Almighty throne room.

The huge guards opened the gold doors to allow JESUS to enter.

JESUS stepped into the doorway of the LORD GOD Almighty's throne room.

The herald announced JESUS.

The LORD GOD Almighty was waiting for JESUS's 'DECISION'.

HIS Glory exploded from HIS spirit.

Never before had heaven seen that glory from the LORD GOD Almighty.

JESUS could barely see the image of GOD the FATHER for HIS glory.

JESUS finally entered the throne room and bowed.

He approached the throne of the LORD GOD Almighty and kneeled before ETERNITY.

The LORD GOD Almighty looked upon HIS Son.

HE said, "JESUS, my Son."

Everyone was trying to see JESUS' face through this immense manifestation of the LORD GOD Almighty's glory.

JESUS smiled.

The LORD GOD Almighty was peeping to look in JESUS' face.

JESUS lifted His face to GOD.

GOD'S heart burst into flames.

The flames of GOD'S heart hit the throne room's walls and filled all of heaven.

All of heaven saw the flames of GOD'S heart as the flames lit up heaven.

They waited for JESUS' 'DECISION'.

JESUS looked around at this spectacular exhibition of HIS FATHER'S LOVE.

JESUS turns HIS head back to the Father and said, "I will go FATHER."

All of heaven heard JESUS' 'DECISION', they had waited for eternity to hear.

The host of heaven began to shout, "All glory to HIM who seats on the throne and to HIS Lamb".

JESUS stood.

The FATHER stood from HIS throne.

The FATHER took JESUS' hand and they walked together out of the throne room.

All the scribes wrote every detail.

The LORD GOD Almighty and JESUS walked out the throne room under the watchful eyes of all the angels and beings in the LORD GOD Almighty's throne room.

All of those in the LORD GOD Almighty's throne room followed behind the LORD GOD Almighty and JESUS.

The LORD GOD Almighty and JESUS walked to the FATHER's balcony that HE makes all HIS announcements from.

All of heaven was quiet, they knew but waited to hear JESUS's 'DECISION' from the FATHER.

The LORD GOD Almighty looked out over the unlimited vastness of heaven and eternity.

HE said, "JESUS, MY SON has decided to go into the coming world and redeem my PEOPLE BACK TO ME.

HE knows all that is required of HIM. I have gloried HIM."

Heaven burst with JOY.

The host of heaven shout, "Hail KING JESUS, Son of the LIVING GOD!!"

JESUS shouts. "VICTORY!"

The host of heaven shouts, "You are the victor!"

The joy of heaven went through all ages.

The LORD GOD Almighty and JESUS smiled as THEY looked up and throughout all ages at the joy of the heavenly host.

The full glory of the LORD GOD Almighty filled the world to come, preparing the way for HIS SON.
